Nominating Process

Question: How does the presbytery populate our committees and elect officers?

Answer: This presbytery has established two normal ways of populating a committee: first, by electing a man who is nominated from the floor of Presbytery (Manual 5-2.5), or by electing a man who is nominated at Presbytery by the nominating committee (Manual 5-8.6). Officer nominations and elections occur in the same manner.

Question: What happens if someone resigns from a committee, and when do committee members rotate off of permanent committees?

Answer: If someone resigns from a committee, the Moderator has authority to replace them. These replacements must have the consent of the next court meeting (Manual 4-2.5). These replacements remain in office until the next annual February election (Manual 4-2.5). In general, committee officers rotate off after the February meeting of their class year (Manual 4-1.3).

Question: When do officer and committee elections take place?

Answer: All Presbytery officers, permanent committee members, GA CoC's, a Floor Clerk, and a Lord's Supper RE are nominated at the February meeting (Manual 4-1.3; 5-8.6), and all aside from the Vice-Moderator are elected at the same meeting. The Vice-Moderator is elected at the May meeting (Manual 4-1.2). GA RPR, Nominating Committee, and permanent committees and agencies are nominated at the November Presbytery meeting.

Please consider recommending men to the nominating committee for vacant slots or for upcoming committee classes! We would love to assist the work of this Presbytery. Our current chair's email is cameron.anderson@ridgehaven.org
